No. 105, Queen's Road Central, Hongkong, 3rd August, 1869.
MANY MURMURS TALK OF LABOR MOVEMENT AT THE CORNERS—THE RESULT IN AN INDIVIDUAL CASE.

PORT OFFICE, CONFIDENTIAL, HONGKONG.
(Which is in the Shape of a Triangle.)

June 9, 1869.

The agitation over the question of negro labor with white men in Washington reached the corner of the world, and now, as far as Hongkong is concerned, a general feeling of alarm has arisen among our white artisans assembled in town, with the passes resounding in sympathy with the white brethren in Washington. They are even to hold a meeting to-night rather than continue the duty by leaving themselves to the level of the negroes. The negroes, however, warrant a large one, for the negroes in the Americas it was, who originated the movement, and the few here at Hongkong, are not to be compared with them in numbers or influence.
